Since literature is the interpretation of life it is obvious that the teaching of literature and music has a common aim and method. When we realize that the relations of men to each other and to nature are, after all, emotional and not intellectual, it is clear that teaching appreciation in literature aims to create power to perceive, visualize, and feel truth and beauty. The general trend of education to-day is toward unity of conception and treatment. No teacher, no subject-matter lives unto itself. The chief problem in pedagogy is how to secure willing and intelligent co-operation among teachers, and practical and vital correlation of subject-matter. This co-operation is not merely a matter of helpful assistance; it is a serious effort to find identities of aim, content, and method in teaching so that the minds and spirits of young people may not only be freed but given harmonious development. Vocational education has very well provided for the purely intellectual and material training of youth. Great sums of money are expended so that they may be taught how to make a living. But we are going to give greater attention to those processes of education which will make life worth living. The problem of the leisure hour, the elevation of taste and morals, the implanting of ideals so that the life may be more than meat and the body than raiment, is the task of the future. Its solution in our schools lies in the hands of...
