A high quality pdf as well as the typeface applied was exciting to see. It really is written in simple words and phrases rather than difficult to understand. You will not really feel monotony at any time of your time (that's what catalogs are for relating to in the event you question me).

Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Letter on Colonization: Addressed to the Rev. Thorton J. Mills, Corresponding Secretary of the Kentucky Colonization Society The author cf the following letter is a gentleman of education and fortune, a native of Kentucky, and allied by birth and marriage to many of the principal families of that state. He has resided fifteen years in Alabama, where he maintained the highest standing, both as a citizen and a professional man. For several years he has been known through out the South West as a devoted, exemplary, and influential Christian. On his return to Kentucky, he was elected first Vice President of the State Colonization Society. In 1832, he was appointed by the American Colonization Society their permanent agent, with a liberal salary, for Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, and Arkansas, and he faithfully laboured in the cause. His writings were copied with approbation in the official magazine of the Society. No man has a better knowledge of colonization, and its practical effects at the south. Few could have made greater sacrifices than he has done, by espousing, advocating, and practising sentiments so obnoxious and unpopular as those of an Abolitionist. No document before the public on any subject exhibits greater ability. Such a man has a right to be heard, and his arguments should be weighed with respect by every citizen of this nation. To the Rev. Thornton J. Mills, Corresponding Secretary of the Kentucky Colonization Society. Sir: - At the annual meeting of the Kentucky Colonization Society in January last, it pleased the members to elect me one of its Vice Presidents. I am by no means insensible to the favorable opinion, which placed me...
